Re: Ordinance to Amend Norfolk City Code Section 38-106

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Attached please find an ordinance amending Norfolk City Code Section 38-106. The ordinance modifies the exception to the usual rules governing yard and garage sales when held at places of worship. The revision is intended to limit sales on such properties to six a year (not more than one every sixty days). Ordinary citizens are limited to holding two sales a year.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDINANCE No.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AND REORDAIN SECTION 38-106 OF THE NORFOLK CITY CODE, 1979, SO AS TO LIMIT THE FREQUENCY OF PERIODIC YARD OR GARAGE SALES.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Norfolk:

Section 1:- That Section 38-106 of the Norfolk City Code, 1979, concerning periodic yard or garage sales on the grounds of places of worship is hereby amended and reordained so as to limit the frequency of such sales to read as follows:

Sec. 38-106. Exemptions from article.

Periodic yard or garage sales held exclusively on the grounds of any place of worship, are exempt from the requirements of this article. For purposes of this section, the phrase "periodic yard or garage sales" means sales held not more frequently than once every sixty days.

Section 2:- That this ordinance shall be in effect from and after its adoption.
